March 6, 1926 - August 25, 2012

Lucille "Lu" Rita Kobrinski, 86, of Cape Coral, Florida passed away August 25, 2012.

She was born March 6, 1926 in Cleveland, Ohio, daughter of Stanley "Steve" and Stefonia "Stella" (nee Serwatka) Archacki and beloved wife of Edward John Kobrinski (deceased).

She leaves to cherish in loving memory, two children, Eddie (Joan) Kobrinski and LuAnne Borders, three grandchildren, Elena Kobrinski, Jamie Borders, and Matt (Corrine) Borders, and one great grandchild, Vance Borders.

She worked for many years as a seamstress in the Cleveland area serving members of the Arts. During her golden years she generously gave her time as a caregiver at Mount Alverna Village Hospice, a gift shop volunteer at Parma Community General Hospital and an assistant at the Resale Store at Our Lady of the Wayside. Her love of pets as her extended family was reflected by her adoption of animals from the Human Society.

“ Message from my dad at gram's funeral:

"As we leave your remains and your spirit joins those you love who have left us before you, we join your spirit for your next life.

We will try to be with your spirit, we will try to be honest we will try to be generous. We will try to be kind to all living creatures. We will try to be light hearted. And, we will try to be fun-loving.

When we are this way, we can be as you are in our hearts forever. As you were in yours."

“ The day my grandma died, we went to the beach at 6:00 p.m. for an evening walk. As as we pulled up, we saw a little creature sitting near the shore staring out at the ocean. We thought it was a fox! It had the largest ears we had ever seen, but knew there were no foxes on St. Thomas.

As we got out of the car, we realized that this was an abandoned puppy - terribly malnourished and abused. After much consoling, and some food, we got him in the car.

The whole time I thought of my gram, and what she would have done. She was an unwavering lover of animals, and she must have taught me well, because it was not an option for me to leave this dog on the beach.

My grandma died two hours after we got him home.

After a visit to the humane society for immediate care, they let us know they had no room for him. So, he's home with me. Almost a month later, you can no longer see his bones, he wags his tail when he sees us, and even plays and jumps! It has been a beautiful transformation.

Thank you, gram, for making me the woman that I am, so similar to you - a relentless lover of animals! I will miss you and love you always.

“ I had the pleasure of knowing 'Aunt Lu' thru Linda over the years and what a joy she brought to anyone who knew her. Full of energy, always putting the needs of others before herself, and greeting us with a genuine smile and a warm hug. She was Aunt Lu to all who knew her; we hold fond memories. Blessings to all. “ I am standing upon the seashore. A ship at my side spreads her white sails to the morning breeze and starts for the blue ocean. She is an object of beauty and strength. I stand and watch her until at length she hangs like a speck of white cloud just where the sea and sky come to mingle with each other.

Then, someone at my side says, ?There, she is gone!?

?Gone where??

Gone from my sight. That is all. She is just as large in mast and hull and spar as she was when she left my side and she is just as able to bear the load of living freight to her destined port.

Her diminished size is in me, not in her.

And, just at the moment when someone at my side says: ?There she is gone!? There are other eyes watching her coming, and other voices ready to take up the glad shout: ?Here she comes!?

And that is dying.
