“ I used to work with Luis at The Oaks Club in Sarasota. He was an incredibly warm and caring person. Would do anything for anyone. Being 23 years old, he always told me I was like his kid brother. I would come over and we would have jam sessions on his insane guitar collection. He helped me out in any way I needed it. I'm beyond upset to hear about his loss. I'm more upset because I've been trying to get ahold of him for months. I lost his contact information so I would drive by his house and he was never there. I assumed at one point he may have moved back to Miami. But I found out this morning with a Google search what had happened. I'm very upset, but I am glad my life was able to be touched by his. A true pleasure. He always used to say "When it's my time, its my time, Bro. I don't worry about it". I can still hear his laugh and voice. I love you Lou

“ Lou was our neighbor in Sarasota. He was a wonderful neighbor and we miss him very much. We would watch out for each other's dogs when needed. Bella tolerated us, but our girl, Emma, loved Lou and continues to look over the fence watching for him. Toby and Lou stayed through Hurricane Irma and celebrated with a post hurricane BBQ. What else do you do with a freezer full of steak when you lose power? We are very saddened by his passing. He was a really good man. God bless you, Luis Sabines Jr.
