

Lydia Maria Cora

August 27, 1955 - August 9, 2012

Lydia was born on August 27, 1955 in Ponce, Puerto Rico. She went to heaven on August 9, 2012. Loving daughter of Lydia E. Villarini and Alejo Garcia. She was a proud mother of two children, Alexandro Cora and Jacqueline Cora. Grandmother of Jordan Loftin. Sister of Jose Garcia. Loving fiancée to Saul Feliciano. She had several nieces and nephews, cousins, and other relatives along with many wonderful friends. Lydia Cora was well known because of her precious and caring personality. She will be truly missed by all. Visitation will be held on Friday, August 17, 2012 from 12-6pm. She is Gone
You can shed tears that she is gone, Or you can smile because she lived, You can close your eyes and pray that she will come back, Or you can open your eyes and see all that she has left. Your heart can be empty because you can't see her Or you can be full of the love that you shared, You can turn your back on tomorrow and live yesterday, Or you can be happy for tomorrow because of yesterday. You can remember her and only that she is gone Or you can cherish her memory and let it live on, You can cry and close your mind, be empty and turn your back, Or you can do what she would want: smile, open your eyes, love and go on.

“ My deepest sympathies go out to the family. Lydia and I used to go to high school together, and we lived around the block off Barber Avenue, and West 32nd St. We lost touch for a while, but through other mutual friends of both us, we were able to know about each other. May she rest in peace, and may her children have the faith to keep remember how beautiful she was and keep her in their hearts. God Bless the Family.

“ Lydia, it seems like it was just yesterday when we were in high school with a few more. We took different routes to make our lives, but I know that deep down we never forgot about each other and the crazy things we did and laughed about. May you rest in peace, and may your children find peace within themselves to always remember you. YOU were a beautiful person. God Bless All of you. Your friend from back then, Nancy Ramos aka Nancy Torres.
