“ Cyndi, Ollie & I treasured a day at Spanish Pointe. Ollie & Popsie's house was my home away from home in high school. So thankful for Cyndi (one of my forever friends) and that Ollie and Popsie are forever in eternity with Jesus, our Lord and Savior. Selah 💕🦋

“ Madelon's Mother Frances was the Sister of my grandmother. As such, we were cousins within a large extended family. As a youngster, I attended Madelon's wedding with my parents, and recall that everyone had a fine time at the reception, dancing polka after polka. As an adult, I recall that Madelon had a warm smile that made you feel comfortable in her presence and that encouraged conversation. I believe her approach to life was always to appreciate a glass of life that was half-full. I last spoke with her while visiting her Brother James (and Wife Marilyn) in AZ about 6 years ago. She still had the warm smile and kind words, as always spoken from the Heart. That's how I shall always remember her. She's now in heaven waiting to greet the rest of us. Michael Kulczak
