My heart will be the greatest relief here. I had the pleasure to have in my life is no longer with us. I keep hoping that this is just some bad dream and I am going to wake up and be able to see him sitting in his chair listening to his radio and saying "well-doo". My mother said it best when she said that "He can now see us from heaven" RIP Papi

He was a man that no one could ever expect. This is a man that has looked death in the face and told him "You can wait, I'm not ready to leave yet". Day in and day out proving to everyone that will power does exist. He left this world when he was ready and on his own terms. He loved nothing more than to be around his family and friends. He was the type of person to make sure everyone was happy and feeling good regardless of his situation, even on his bad days. Everyone that has ever had the chance to meet him was blessed. I would like for everyone to get a chance to meet him, to do this I want you to go outside and look up. You see that star that stands out and shines brighter than the rest? That's him, that's my grandfather, I'm happy you that you've met him and was able to see how
