

Margaret Thompson Baumgardner

August 21, 1937 - February 2, 2014

Margaret Thompson Baumgardner passed away at age 76. She was born in Gloucester, Virginia and was preceded in death by her parents Myrtle and Burleigh Thompson, her sister Marion Shackelford and her son Richard Allen Baumgardner. She is survived by her husband of 54 years Richard Baumgardner, her children Brenda Tyson, Cindy Wong and her husband Kee, Pat Cruse and her husband Jack; grandchildren Austin Mueller, Rose Drinnon, Robert Drinnon, Rachel Drinnon, Kit Wong and Kai Wong and one great-grandchild Brooke Hastings. She also leaves behind her sisters Mary Kemp, Martha Hudgins and her husband Bobby, Emma Walton and her husband Buck, Alice White and her husband John and Grace (Red) Rowe and her husband Hammie. She also had many wonderful nieces, nephews, cousins and other extended family and friends who are saddened by her death. Throughout her life Margaret was a hard-working woman, faithful wife and loving mother. In addition to running a busy household, she managed the office for the contracting business operated by her husband. After spending her early life in Virginia, she found a home in LaBelle, Florida and loved the people at the Oxbow Golf Course. After the unfortunate closure of the golf course, she moved to Lehigh Acres and was blessed to again find some wonderful people to love. She was instrumental in arranging and managing several charity golfing events. Those who wish to offer condolences to the family at this difficult time are urged to visit her memorial webpage at www.andersonpatterson.com and sign the guestbook.

“ Margaret will always be remembered by both of us...she was unforgettable! Our sympathies to those she left behind, but we hope all the great memories will still be there. Loved her and her attitude. She was one tough lady with a heart made of marsh mellows! God speed.
