“ Gosh, I am in total shock at the passing of Mimi Jacob. She was my first real girlfriend back in 1982. Met her when she worked the register taking orders at Mr Gatti's pizza place. Such a beautiful smile. Her whole face lit up. I asked her out and she said 'yes.'

I always have had warm memories of Mimi. We went to movies (E.T. and Poltergeist), went to the beach. Just had a lot of fun.

My warmest memory, though, came a year and a half after we stopped dating when my 16-year old brother died in a car accident. When we were dating, she got to know my brother when we'd go pick him up from weightlifting practice at Riverview High School. Well, when my brother died, I was at the funeral service and suddenly saw Mimi show up to pay her respects for my brother. It was a year and a half after we wuit dating and, yet, she took the time to come pay respects for my brother. I always remembered that and very much appreciated her doing that.

So, Mimi has always had a warm place in my heart. I'm so deeply saddened to find that she passed away. Rest in Peace, Mimi, and thank you so much for crossing paths in my life. I'll never forget you.
