

Margaret E Saunders

December 29, 1936 - June 22, 2016

SAUNDERS, Margaret Agnes Elliott of Fort Myers, FL passed away at the age of 79 on June 22, 2016. Beloved daughter of Rush Elliott and Frances Gray Elliott, devoted sister to her adored brother Rush Eugene Elliott of Salem, OH and the now deceased Suzanne Elliott, most caring mother to her son's Timothy Gray Ehrhart and Rush Thomas Ehrhart, loving partner of the deceased love of her life, Larry Hench.

In addition to her brother and two sons, Margaret is survived by her daughter-in-laws Katherine Painter and Anne Colburn Ehrhart, her step daughter's Karen, Betty, and Barbara Saunders, her nieces and nephews Karen, Jenny, Rush, Terry, and Celeste, and their families. Margie is also remembered by her 10 lovely grandchildren who she doted on and embraced with all her heart.

Margaret was born in Athens, Ohio in 1936. She graduated from Ohio University with a Bachelors Degree in Biochemistry and then worked with Dr. Albert Sabin as a research assistant racing to find a cure for polio. She was married to Jack Thomas Ehrhart in 1958 and remarried to Charles William Saunders in 1980. She was an avid reader and photographer and a loyal and trusted friend to many, many people all across the world. Her willingness and desire to help others and maintain her relationships are what defined her the most.

Services will be held for Margie at 2:00 PM on Friday July 8, 2016 in the Magnolia Room at Pelican Preserve living community located at 10700

Pelican Preserve Blvd, Fort Myers, FL 33913. Margie will be buried with her parents in Athens, Ohio with dates to be announced. Cards may be sent to Rush and Tim Ehrhart at 312 Newtonville Ave., Newton, MA 02460
Her family asks that donations be made to the Rush Elliott Fund and can be sent to the Ohio University Foundation at P.O. Box 869 Athens, OH 45701
