“ Mom, Even though we were miles apart, I felt your presence everyday when you called. It still seems so surreal that you are gone. I'm still waiting for the phone to ring. I miss your sweet voice. I will cherish all the summers that you spent in NJ with us. Even though we weren't able to say goodbye, I'm comforted to know my last words to you were "I love you". We always ended our conversations that way. Your memory will live on and remain in my mind and heart forever. Please give a kiss and hug to my Mom, Bella, as she departed this life on the same day only 3 1/2 hours apart. God must have needed two good Angels that day. "Life's so fragile and love's so pure, we can't hold on but we try. We watch how quickly it disappears and we never know why." I love you and miss you. Rest peacefully until we meet again. All my love, ALWAYS
Joanne

“ I felt your presence the other day,when a little blue bird sat on my fence for hours, not moving when I walked toward it. I think you were trying to tell me you were at peace and happy now. I showed Jul the "Little blue bird of happiness" We were comforted.

Marty, so very sorry, she was a real special person to me. I loved her so dearly. Her mom was my Godmother, then she became my sponsor when I was confirmed! For me she also took on the role of my Godmother when her mom passed. She was a very special person to my whole family.....I'm so very happy that I got to see the both of you a few months back....I will never forget that wonderful dinner she cooked special for me. I will never ever forget it! I will call you soon! May she rest in peace in the arms of our Lord!

“ MY GRANDMA!!! May you have eternal peace with our Lord. Your true dedication to your family with daily phone calls, emails and cards has left a void in everyone’s life. Certainly not as the big as the void in my heart for you. I miss you. You were more than just a grandmother to me, you were my best friend. I will never forget your great advice and I will cherish every memory we have. I love you forever MY GRANDMA! ❤️
