

Marjorie L Crosslin

July 27, 1932 - July 13, 2014

Marjorie Louise Crosslin, "Marje," age 81, died on Sunday July 13, 2014 at the Bay Breeze Health and Rehabilitation Center in Venice, Florida. The cause was lung cancer, which Marje battled courageously for 5 years.

Born July 27, 1932 in Detroit, Michigan, she lived in Detroit, Houston, Bradenton, and Sarasota and worked as a secretary, bookkeeper, and bank teller until retiring in 1997. Marje was an avid "gamer" her entire life: card/dice/board games throughout her life, she played online games daily, and she bowled in several leagues each week. Marje became a true "geek" in her retirement, and at her death she owned and actively used 2 computers, 2 laptops, several tablets, and two smart phones. She enjoyed making greeting cards for her family and friends.

Survivors include her children Clyde Aaron Crosslin Jr., Norwalk, CA, Carrie Janet Taggart, Denver, CO, Kevin Lee Crosslin, Detroit, MI, and Keith Everett Crosslin, Washington, DC; her brother Ken Oke, Alpena, MI; her four grandsons and two great-grandsons; and several nieces and nephews. Marje was preceded in death by her parents Leo and Gertrude Oke, and her brothers Allen and Donald Oke.

Marje's wishes were that no Services be held and she will be cremated in Sarasota, FL. No flowers, please.

Please celebrate Marje's life and passing with warm remembrance and perhaps a game or two at your local bowling alley or bingo parlor.

“ I enjoyed Marje's company while bowling in several leagues over several years. She was funny and was always eager to share her latest pictures and games. She was amazing in her ability to adapt to the newest technology. I will miss her very much. My sympathy to her entire family. Rose Reese

“ Marge was a spunky lady even in the worst of times. She was fun to bowl with, and I especially loved her wry sense of humor. Deepest sympathy to her family, who were her pride and joy. She delighted in showing all of us the latest pictures of her grandchildren and that is when Marge really shined. She will be missed. We pray she is at peace.
