Your father had a BIG heart! I didn't know him long but we shared a passion for God, family and work. I was the manager at CVS in Arcadia at the time and your father's store was in Wachula- we were the outliers in our district being so far away from our district mileage wise, which was Sarasota at the time and we had each other backs. On more than a few occasions on my way back home, I would cross paths with him riding his scooter back out on the country roads, namely county rd 72 which is the where he is buried at Sarasota National Cemetery. Miss him!
