“ Marleen was a red-headed firecracker, and I knew her for many years through her husband Wolfgang Dellefont. I started riding with Wolfgang in 1988, and developed a lasting friendship with the two of them. She was thoughtful and funny, and would split the silence with her laughter. She was always a class act, carrying herself with such poise and grace- the legacy of her circus performer days. She was very young for her age, often sporting the latest nail fads or clothing, and her candle will continue to burn brightly. She from Germany, Wolfgang from Austria- I can hear the two of them now...
