“ Our heartfelt sympathies to the entire family. We are very sadden to hear of your loss. Of the few words that bring great comfort in times of grief are the words from God at Isaiah 25:8. "He will swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will wipe away the tears from all faces. The reproach of his people he will take away from all the earth, for Jehovah himself has spoken it." May Gods' promise of the resurrection bring you solace Acts 24:15.

“ Marlene Rodriguez was an amazing soul, she was kind, loving and selfless. She is loved today and always , her passing has shown me that I was lucky to have found her, for people like her only come around once in a lifetime. I know that my life will never be the same without her. Crusty you will always be my sister from another mister, I love you and that will never change. Until we meet again.

“ You may be out of my sight but never my heart, I may not see your face but will remember your smile, the bond we have cannot be broken by space or time not even death can take you away from us you have simply become a wonderful treasure all of us can carry with us forever. I'm still waiting to wake up from this dream and to meet you for lunch one more time one more laugh one more silly voice saying " I am the tomato god" lmao i will remember your famous chuletas fritas the ones with the orange they are my sons favorite remember at veros house when we were goofing around with the video camera ? Cmon over cmon over baby .. Or when we got out of a speeding ticket by blaming it on curfew? Or soo many more times sleep overs and playing pool oh Marlo I miss you soo very much my friend I love you and can't wait until we meet again
