“ What a shock, to come downtown, for lunch, only to read the sign on the door. Marty, you will be missed.

My fellow New Jersey native. I loved coming in and talking about our old NJ hang outs. Glad you let me help you for those 3 days. It was fun.

We miss you. Rest in peace, Marty.

“ Watched the 2008 Super Bowl at a friends house. Marty and Frank were there as well. The rest of the group were Patriots fans. Marty and I bantered back and forth the entire game. He was over the top when the Giants won and continued to have a good time at my expense. Thanks for the great memories Marty. Each time I saw him, he would relive the game.

“ *Marty, I only met you in January but feel like I knew you forever. The comfort and love you and Frank brought to me will never be forgotten. I am so heartbroken that you are no longer here. I always enjoyed your phone call. I know my dad was there to welcome you with open arms and a scotch! May you Rest In Peace. Frank, you two were so lucky to have each other for so many years. May all the great memories live in your heart forever. Sending you love and prayers. 💕🙏
XOXO,
Elena, Lenny and family*
