“ My cousin Marvin was a great guy; totally authentic; loving; funny; and a wonderful story teller. Sandy and I were so lucky to spend good time with he and Chet the last few years. He always had a smile on his face and he loved and enjoyed his family. He had a great time with Jeff and Joanna on their cruises and raved about it. He has left us too soon and we will miss him. May his memory be for a blessing. Steve Cozen
