“ Dear Uncle Lewis Tammy,Lewis,Jessica,Isaiah,Jacob We are very saddened to hear about the loss of your mother (our Aunt Mary). We will never forget all the fun times we shared with her in years gone past. She was such a humble lady who suffered many long years in her body....thank the Lord she will never suffer no more!! She was a loving mom to the each of you and I remember her being so proud of you all and of her grandchildren. We are praying for the each of you to find comfort in the comfort giver (God) who is able a to help you through the difficult time in your life. Look back at all the wonderful memories you all have shared.Cherish them as they will always help you remember woman who loved you unconditionally. We send our sincere regrets of not being able to make the trip to share our last good-bye. Everyone of you will be in our hearts but most of all in our prayers. We love you all!! Love, Don Janet

“Dear Family: My sincere condolence to your family with the loss of your loved one. God knows the pain is not easily erased so he promises that he will very soon “... wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore. The former things have passed away.” It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone you love. The thought of never again being able to talk to, laugh with, or hold your loved one must be most difficult to bear. But the Scriptures indicate that it is possible to be reunited with your dead loved one in the near future, right here on earth under peaceful, righteous conditions. And at that time humans will have the prospect of enjoying perfect health, and they will never have to die again, because God promises us: “Your dead ones will live. . . . They will rise up.” And the Bible also says: “The righteous themselves will possess the earth, and they will reside forever upon it.” Revelation 21:4, Isaiah 26:19; Psalm 37:29. Sincerely, Del Amiel
