“ Dear Mom,
I am really missing you right now and I do not know how I will handle not being able to hear your sweet voice while I am out on the road but I know you will be watching over me and keeping me safe.

“ I only knew you for a moment in life. It was a privledge to have finally met you. I wish I could have known you longer, I was so happy to have been in your life for that short moment...just as we got to know each other, you were gone. I am so sad for what I missed. Momma, I will never forget the few days I was able to be with you. And will miss the times we could of shared. Love Susan
