“ You made me feel so good on all my trips Diamond tours lost one terrific person. You were the greatest. She talked me through some tough times. I just knew her through Diamond but she was my best friend. Maryann I missed you terribly these last couple of months. Love and prayers for your family. Marie Deja , River Falls, Wisconsin..

“ You will be sorely missed by Diamond Tours and by myself, the group leader and my fantastic group. You always looked out for us on every trip we took. Rest in peace my dear friend and know you were a true friend to me for so long. Shirley Ernest and her Irwin's Choice Bus travelers from Bel Air, Maryland.

“ What a great sense of humor this girl had. Pushed me through Realtor school to the finish, but we passed. She and I went to Orlando a day early to go to Disney. We had ice cream for breakfast and pop corn for brunch simply because no one was there to say we couldn't. We were there all day riding the rides. Good days...All went well on test day in Orlando, until we ran into that elderly man while waiting to take the test. Our teacher warned us to avoid talking to anyone just before the test. We only said hello to be nice as we passed by. He was standing all alone. Low and behold the first words he said? That it was his 9th time trying to pass the test! Maryann and I fled like we were on fire....trying to avoid negativeness before we took the test. Danielle we are so sorry for your loss. Richard and Karen Snarr
