“ So sorry to hear. Gonna miss you tons, you always treated me like a little brother. Love you always.

“ Mikey ... I didn't know you were sick ... I'm sorry Bro! I too grew up with Mike, Korey and the rest of the crew ... I remember the goofy grin and in our early adult years, I recall his voice in the crowd calling for our band to play certain songs ... seems I have lost track of the time and continue to lose our friends ... May GOD Bless you and hold you in his arms! jp

“ I knew and grew with Michael P. Ginocchi in the neighborhood right behind what is now Washington Inn. We rode our sting-ray bicycles through the Avenue of Pines to discover the many paths. There were also times we rode through to go to the state park swimming pool.

Mike, you have spread much of yourself and the Saratoga Springs roots among the many in Florida. I am sure you will continue to share in your eternal resting place - Heaven. God loves you and so do I!
