“ So many memories of us all growing up in NJ.... I will always remember you..rest in peace my cousin

Doreen Hallabuk - November 19, 2010 at 10:39 PM

“ Dear Family, I would like to express my sincere condolences at the loss of your dear loved one. Please be assured that your tears are not unnoticed by the Creator of Life. Although your deep pain will not easily disappear, praying to God will bring comfort to you as you grieve. The Bible tells us that God is "healing the broken-hearted ones and is binding up their painful spot (Psalm 147:3). May the "Father of tender mercies" and the "God of all comfort" strengthen your faith and give you courage to face the days ahead (2 Corinthians 1:3). My sincere condolences to the family.

“ Jonathan & Lisa, Please accept my deepest condolences and sympathies on the loss of your father. Losing a parent is not an easy thing to go through. While the person may no longer be with you in person, the memories you have will live on in you and they will always be a part of you.
