

Michael William MacDonald

October 20, 1958 - August 1, 2016

Michael MacDonald was born on October 20th, 1958 in New Bedford, Massachusetts. He was raised in Holbrook, Massachusetts by William and Claire MacDonald who now rest in peace. Michael accomplished many things within his lifetime. He served honorable time in the Marine Corps and went on to marry Angela MacDonald. He was employed at Nimrod Press for 20 years and then worked at Quebecor World before moving to Florida with his family in 2004. He was well known in the community for always being willing to help the people he met. In 2016, he began to have problems with his liver and passed away on August 1st, 2016. Michael MacDonald passed away but is survived by his sons Kyle and Danny MacDonald and his daughter Lily. He leaves behind memories and a legacy that will not be forgotten by his family or the people he knew. He will be forever missed. A service for Michael will be held at St. John the Evangelist Church on Friday August 5th at 2:00pm.

Tribute Wall

“ Michael William MacDonald

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Michael William MacDonald

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ Danny, Kyle and Lily. My family is so saddened to hear about our cousin. Michael was such a wonderful man. We all have so many wonderful memories growing up. Saturday mornings Aunt Rita, Uncle Bibi and Michael came over. We spent hours hanging out and sharing many laughs. Our thoughts and prayers to each of you. Mark and Anne Zanello Mattice.

Anne Zanello Mattice - August 06, 2016 at 09:45 AM

“ God bless you Danny, Kyle and Lily. I believe your dad is in heaven now and will be proudly watching over you. Love, Annmarie

annmarie swidwa - August 05, 2016 at 05:21 PM