“ Mike you made my sister very happy and loved her very much. I will miss the great conversations we had, the great meals you cooked for us at the beach. I know you are having a great time with my mom, dad, brother and Molly. Thank you for making my sister happy. Our family has another angel watching over us. Love you and rest in peace.

“ I'll always remember a family reunion many years ago at Starlight. I was sitting next to Uncle Mike and chewing ice repeatedly and loudly, when he told me, "You know, chewing ice breaks your teeth over time...". I didnt chew ice again for over a year ;)

I'll miss your humor and honesty. They broke the mold with you. Love you and God Bless.

“ Life is not a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in a pretty & preserved body, but rather to skid in broadside, totally worn out & proclaiming "WOW, WHAT A RIDE!" You did just that my dear Mike! Thank you for the 28 year ride... I will never forget our adventures together.... I love you with all my heart.....

Hey Mike> "Don't slip on the ice !". I know you are up there raising Cain, so I thought I'd give you some wise advice :) Thanks to you and L J for treating us all as family (maybe not EXACTLY haha) and always sharing holiday cheer every year.
Love,

“Michael, Big Bear Brother, who helped raise so many siblings using the best methods a big brother was capable of. Examples :Told you that you didn't smell too bad on your first day of middle school, quietly drove his annoying younger sisters all over the planet when our overworked dad asked, cooked dinner for us when no one else was home to do it. He even mastered folding laundry in a weird boy way when he was young.

Michael and I planted many trees together. You did not need a post hole digger when Mike was by your side. He was stronger than oak,defying the rocks of earth. All our trees still flourish. Proof of real human strength.

Ego's were always balanced around Michael. He was the master of keeping all potential loser boyfriends at bay and spotting a friend that would be nothing but trouble in his sister's friendship pool. He was a parent, long before he was an adult. I think it was a heavy boulder to push as a young person. Michael did it even when he did not want to.

Michael was gruff when necessary, kind when it was important, and never hurt a person even though his strength was that of a Gladiator when he was a young man. Michael was very intelligent. Golf he defined the term " a natural " Michael developed patient care skills early. We all did because of our mother's illness. I imagine Michael as the best surgeon heaven has ever had!

True love and happiness landed on him the day he met Linda. From that hour forward he was total. Peace, love and happiness hit from all side. Thank you Linda.

I was out walking in the field behind my home on May 3, 2014. A silhouette of a very large bird was high near a bank of clouds. It was a golden eagle. Strong almost weightless and so free. It was very distant but then came near,yet remained very high on the wind. The eagle paused, high, very high above me for a near moment. I imagined in my grieving heart I saw it wink at me. Than it steered its way into the distant atmosphere.

Michael God Bless You. Thank you for all the things you did for me in such a quiet man kind of way. Love.

Hi Linda, I have the fondest memories of You and Mike coming in to Doc Watson's where I bartended at the time. You both were always so sweet and caring about others. My prayers are with you during this time of sorrow. I'm happy to have had the opportunity to know you both. God Bless.

“ Michael, Michael, with your well worn Fanny Farmer's Cook book in hand you, along with your sister, you two are preparing heavenly feasts, but those of us who continue to reside on Planet Earth will remember with great pleasure your Earthly feasts....and your Irish humor, always at the ready to welcome one and all. I did not know you as long as many, but certainly long enough to be your friend, which I honor... You are a gift, and will continue to be. With Love, Susie Rich

*Dear Linda Jean:
I am sorry I did not know Michael as well as others, but what I do know is the incredible relationship and bond the two of you had together. I can only imagine the loss you must feel at this time. He will be with you everyday I am sure. Know that your friends care about you and support you during this extraordinary time of loss.
