“ Oh. Dad. It's just soo hard to believe that I won't be able to look into your beautiful blue eyes again. There are so many things that I didn't get a chance to say to you. You are now and always be in my thoughts, We have lots of great memories with you, and I will cherish them, always. You are pain free and resting now. I love you so much dad. Ayden will know about his great grandpa, how special he was. ❤️ I miss you dad. Love Wanda & Brian. Brian jr, Kyle , Tyler & Ayden too

“ Dad,

You were taken from us far too quick. There were so many things left unsaid. I'm truly devastated for our loss. I miss you terribly, dad. I will cherish the good times on the water and those crazy times riding jet skis. The girls have wonderful memories of their grandpa doing cannon balls at 80 years old! I think about you daily and hope with time that my broken heart will heal. We love you, dad.

“ Well Dad...It's been 12 days and I'm still having a hard time believing you are gone. You never really got the chance to fight this terrible disease. Took you way too soon. We were supposed to play that game of chess and Mike was taking you on that fishing trip to Chokoloskee. I am thankful that you are no longer in pain. We will miss you and cherish the times that we spent together. I'm sure you and Mom are up there laughing it up and watching over all of us. Love you Dad! Your daughter Michele (Mike and Dakota) xo
