

Michael Urraro

August 1, 1962 - August 24, 2020

Michael Urraro was everything you will find in a role model. Known to much of the community as Coach Mike, he affected the hearts of many kids throughout his years coaching at storms and Ida S. Baker high school. He achieved his bachelors degree in business and his masters degree public administration. He was a member of the police force for 30 years and retired as a captain of the Cape Coral police department. He was a die hard yankee, an undercover Knicks fan, and a surviving Giants fan. He was the best dad in the world, and the captain of the family. He will be forever remembered and left an unforgettable legacy.

He is survived by 3 sons: Justen, Hunter, Griffin Urraro. 4 brothers: Anthony, Louie, Joey, and Brenden. 3 Sisters: Ann Marie, Lori, and Julia. A mother: Iris Urraro. 10 nephews and nieces: Ashley, Amber, Zeyvn, Kylie, Jake, Jolie, Garrett, Colin, Liam and Christopher.

Loved by Jill and her 2 children Cameron and Evan.

Remembered by Kristen.

“ Mickey,
I just heard tonight. My heart hurts. You were more than my partner on the street back in the day, we were the best of friends. When we talked about having better lives and you decided to move your family to a safer place (Cape Coral), you presented me with a "job related" framed poster with an attached plaque that read, "I am always with you 'bro." Although we did not keep in touch as much as we should over the years - you busy raising a family and moving up in the department and me transferring here and there with the government - I felt we were always together in at least spirit over the years, watching over each other in our new climes just as we did back in the day in South Florida. Those times together taught me so much that I carried throughout my career (many things that undoubtedly saved my life several times) and I am forever grateful for that, but mostly I am grateful for your friendship. I still brag about what a great partner, cop, and person you were. You are sorely missed. I still can hear you yelling "Tom Tom" like it was yesterday. Love ya' 'bro!!!

“ Coach Mike was an awesome example of what leadership and teamwork really stood for. It was a pleasure to experience the Peace River Championship season which was dedicated to teammate Eddie Buggs with Coach Mike at the helm. After Eddie's passing, Mike helped all the boys cope with the loss of their friend and I, as a parent, appreciated so much his efforts for the kids. He will be sorely missed by so many. Sending our sincere condolences to the Urraro family during this tremendously difficult time. Laurie Plue, Nick Giarrusso's mom #33 Tornados
