

Michaela Jansen

March 6, 2011

Michaela Jansen – 1973-2011 “You continue to be our shining sunny soul among us” Michaela was born in the former East Germany, in a small town call Greifswald on June 7. 1973,. Her mother is Silvia Cyienskowski and father Winfried Hansen. She had one sibling Laura Hansen, Michaela was special from the beginning, she was an honor roll student during her academic education from a child up. She completed the Gymnasium as top "A" student and earned her Masters Degree in Economics at the prestigious RWTH Aachen University in Germany. She later met her husband and artist Marcus Antonius Jansen, who she was introduced to by a friend in 1996 in Aachen Germany, before the two married in 2000. The couple has two sons, Elias Marcus Jansen (7) and Dominic Michael Jansen (4). After rejecting to work for the corporate world, Mr. and Mrs . Jansen came to the United States from Europe in July 2001 to start their own business MEPSart. The business later was renamed to Expressive Culture LLC, where Michaela was the Vice President and Co-Fonder and first critic of all works produced by her husband. The company turned out to be the home of Jansen paintings, prints and publications, having established an international following and world renown in less than a decade. She was the backbone of her family and was a caring and happy wife, mother and friend that touched everyone’s heart with her smile and pureness as soon as she came in contact with them. She was a leader in nutrition and health practices and taught many friends and family members about healthy food habits and physical fitness. Her fight with cancer was brave courageous and fierce. She stayed determined and stood steadfast in her beliefs during the most challenging times and never gave in to fear. She was a free spirit and a roll model for many other women and men that met her. Michaela was a prime example of what it meant to be human. You will be greatly missed. The planet has suffered a great loss but God has one special angel that returned. Thank you for being with us and for the love and joy you've given us over the years. May you rest in peace until we unite again. We love you dearly.
