“ *To my lovely Auntie who I miss and love and hope she is dancing away up there to her favourite rocker Rod Stewart :) I remember when you used to come over to the UK when I was a kid and you asked me to sing a Blondie song. I made a tape of the song 'Sunday Girl' for you when I was 7 years old. You made me laugh and I will always have you in my heart. Love always your niece xx

“ I remember when my Mom & Dad went out to town and my Grandma would watch us , we would watch movies there and stay up late & eat junk food ! she would also cook dinner for us and i use to cry to my mom and dad and begg & plead to them not to send me over there because she use to make me eat my broccoli and if i didnt i wouldnt be able to leave the dinner table. so i use to stuff my mouth and go to the bathroom every second and spit it out in the toilet & flush it ... then she caught on,but today ANYONE can ask me what my favorite vegetable is and i would have to say BROCCOLI!:) i ask for it with every meal.... i will ALWAYS cherish this memory !!!

“ Omah, you were such a sweet amazing lady! I love you so much! You always had me laughing an I enjoyed our various conversations. I'm glad I got to see you not too long before you passed. But I wish I could have atleast said goodbye. It will not be the same without you. But you'll always bee in my heart. I love you!
