

Murat Tirpan

March 1, 1933 - March 14, 2022

Murat Tirpan of Lehigh Acres, FL, died peacefully on Monday, March 14, 2022. A widower of Hegina Tirpan, who we lost on April 14, 2021, and grandfather to the late Michael Hadchikian, who we lost on September 18, 2020. He is survived by his three children, Ani Tirpan of Lehigh Acres, FL, Oves Ovesian of Massachusetts, and Julie Tache and her husband Michael, of Lehigh Acres, FL. He is also survived by his five grandchildren, Taline Andonian-Conklin, and her husband William, David Andonian and his wife Leah, Eric Andonian, and his wife Carmen, Nikolas Ovesian, Tatiana Morales and her husband Tylo, along with 11 great grandchildren. Murat's parents were survivors of the Armenian Genocide and passed down to him a fearlessness and strength that was unparalleled. He immigrated to the United States in 1966, with no resources, where with hard work and perseverance, he operated a very successful business, supporting and laying the foundation for 4 generations of Armenian Americans to not only survive, but to thrive. He loved to travel, and in 2009, he and his wife, Hegina, traveled to Armenia, back to their roots. He spent the last six months of his life with his two daughters and son in law, in SW Florida, enjoying the weather, sights, and beauty.

Tribute Wall

“ Murat Tirpan

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Murat Tirpan

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ I worked at Parkway Motor Service for several years in the Late 90s...Mike taught me what hard work was and also what tough but fair meant..He was a no nonsense earn it if you want it but here is the shirt off my back type guy.....I regret I didn't get to see him before he passed....I loved him like a father and he changed the course of my life and definitely molded the man I became....Sorry for your loss,know that stories of Mike and lessons he taught me are being passed down to my son....

Jay - July 13, 2022 at 09:58 PM