“ God bless & thank you all for your sympathy, prayers & love for our family. Seeing the positive impact she had on so many lives, I feel so proud & fortunate I had her as my "Auntie Nade". She was a generous, funny, loving, & smart woman. Nade was truly a heroine & role model. I believe she's now an angel, watching over us from Heaven. I love you & miss you sooo much, Nade.

Until we meet again... Love Always, your niece Shelby oxox

“ Victor and Alexis, are heart felt sympathy for your loss. Nadine was a wonderful lady and great to work with. I so enjoyed being in her company when I went into the office while she was working with Sherman & Associates. We all think of Nadine when we see Bagels and Cream Cheese, she was always sharing them with everyone. Our prayers are with you to give you both strength through this time.

Sincerely,

Ray & Kawannah Laakso

“ My deepest sympathy to Nadine's family. May memories of your dear wife, mother, sister, aunt bring a smile to your face and a warmth to your heart.

I will always remember the summers at Uncle Bob's farm when Nadine and Diane would come to ride horses with me.

“ Lex, Nadine will live on through you for the rest of your life, therefore I have no doubt that you will find joy and happiness in whatever endeavors you pursue..... Vic, A piece of your heart has left this earth for heaven but you will always have your memories. Nadedge, Your nickname always brought us laughs (especially of the day you got it!). The wisdom and humor that you brought to work every day was so refreshing, I'm looking forward to continuing our competition over who has the bigger nose, once I get to heaven, or are we all made perfect up there? Miss you like crazy! Marcia

“ My deepest and most sincere sympathy. Nadine was such a special friend to me and my family. I am so grateful that she was part of my life. I will forever have the memories of Nadine and I in the front seat and the girls in the back "singing" their crazy songs. We used to laugh so much at what the girls came up with....She will be missed!

Love to you as you go through this difficult transition...we are here if you need us.

Much love,

The Clouses

“ My Aunt

I thought I saw her face today... See More

In the sparkle of the morning sun.

And then I heard the angel say

?Her work on earth is done.?

I thought I heard her voice today

Then laugh her hearty laugh.

And then I heard the angel say

?There?s peace little one at last.?

I thought I felt her touch today

In the breeze that rustled by.

And then I heard the angel say

?The spirit never dies.?

I thought that she had left me

For the stars so far above.

And then I heard the angel say

?She left you with her love.?

I thought that I would miss her

And never find my way.

And then I heard the angel say

?She?s with you every day.?

“ ?Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away into the next room. I am I, and you are you; whatever we were to each other, that we are still. Call me by my old familiar name; speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone; wear no forced air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me, play for me. Let my name be ever the household work that it always was. Let it be spoken without an effort, without the ghost of a shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same as it ever was; there is absolutely unbroken continuity. I am but waiting for you, for an interval, somewhere very near, just around the corner. All is well.?

-- Canon Henry Scott Holland (written at the turn of the century)

You will be forever in my thoughts.
