“ I will always remember my Uncle Nick as a funny, caring man. Every time we were together he would ask me how I was doing & was always interested & present with whatever we were talking about. Life happens; people get caught up in their own struggles.....but he took it in stride. Though we never lived in the same place & were not in each other's every day lives, I loved him very much & I know he loved me. He will be greatly missed....And forever in my heart. 💕 Love Always, Gina

“ Our Dearest Friend Nick, you are missed!

We always looked forward to the times we all spent together. Who would have thought it would be cut so short. New Years Eve will never be the same without you. We will always remember the good times when we all were together in California and Las Vegas. Our last time we met was filled with laughing until we could not laugh anymore, taking photos and sharing memories of times past. We were looking forward to the future in a new setting, planning for the next time we would meet again. Who would have thought you would not be there to share your new home and new adventures of Florida, our dear friend. We will always remember your kind heart, fun loving spirit and the joy you gave to all of us. Until the next time we meet, Rest in Peace.

“ From the first time (25 years ago) that my sister Renae introduced Nick to Tom and me, I was charmed by his personable manner, his ready smile, and his easy conversation. Over the years I've come to love him for many other reasons; among the most was his love and devotion to Renae and the happiness they created and enjoyed throughout the years.

Rest well, Nick. you are loved by many.

“ What a wonderful man the world has lost. Nick I didn't know you well, but I knew how happy you made Renae. Renae always spoke about her Nick as a man that made her feel safe, loved, and cared for, and her best friend. Nick will never truly leave us, for he is still alive in our hearts and minds. My deepest sympathies go out to you and your family. May you find comfort and peace that you seek and may the soul of Nick rest in peace.

“ I'm Nick's eldest sister; I knew him the longest. He was the most caring, loving, thoughtful person i knew. He would help anyone if he could. I still cant believe hes gone. I have his picture on my dresser and everyday I look at it and ask "why you?" I never thought hed be the first to go. I guess I took for granted that he would always be here. It breaks my heart that I'll never be able to see or talk to him in person again. I miss him more than words can say. Nick you'll always be in my heart and there isn't a day where I'm not reminded of you in some way. I love you so much.

Love always,

“ Nick was the most kind, devoted and loving husband, brother, uncle, stepfather & grandfather and my best friend.

Over the last 24 years I look back and realize how beautiful our time together was here on earth. I thank you Nick for all of the great memories we shared. I am so very blessed to have met and married such a wonderful husband.

Nick's ability to make everyone feel comfortable, secure and loved were his greatest gifts. His good nature attracted people the moment he walked in the room, and no one could miss his warm smile and laugh.

I feel Nick is looking down on us all today with a big smile saying "Move On" - "Make The Best of Life".

I am going to miss you so very much my love. Your decency, sincerity & kind soul will stay with me forever.

So, through the tears, let us see the blessings of knowing & loving you as the wonderful person your were to each of us.

Rest in peace my love. "I love you to the moon and back and always will". God bless until we meet again someday.

"Uncle Nick," my biggest regret is not ever getting the chance to know you better. Though we didn't know each other well, in our "feeling out" that we did do we got to know each other, I enjoyed even that process. As men, we don't always open up right away, but even in our "masculine survey" of each other, I always saw a twinkle in your eye, and it always made me smile. And as I've told my dear aunt and your dear wife, the way you looked at each other was something I dream to someday find! You are gone too soon, and I shall always regret that we weren't closer. Thank you for caring your way into our family. Your absence is felt!

Nick from the first day I met you and introduced you to my sweet friend Renae, I knew the two of you were meant together! You will be missed by many! Such a sweet warm man loved by all who knew you! I was so looking forward to getting together with you and Renae now in Florida, but that never happened, until we meet again my friend!

My husband and I got to spend time with Nick in helping him search for a home for him and his lovely wife to live in and enjoy what Florida has to offer. I would best describe Nick as a man deeply devoted to his wife, Renae. He knew her well, I could tell, and she trusted him to making such a big decision as choosing a home. He was easy to talk with, spend time with, and had a very good way of connecting with people. We even went to dinner with them a couple of times and really enjoyed their company. I'm just so sorry that Nick didn't get to enjoy our winters here and all the fun things our area has to offer in the upcoming months. I hope Nick is at peace knowing what a wonderful job he did of taking care of Renae. God bless him and keep him until they are reunited.

Nick was a wonderful, caring man. My good friend Renae always had kind words to say about him. He took such great care of her, he made her so happy. "Thank you Nick for giving Renae so much love and happiness all these years." You will be missed!

Nick and Renae were our neighbors in Henderson, NV for close to 15 years. We were so lucky to have them living next to us and sharing moments together. He and Renae organized so many neighborhood outings. Always, a highlight around the neighborhood. Our neighborhood was and still at a loss without them here. Generous and kind was just some of his outstanding qualities. Our heartfelt thoughts go to Renae, who he loved so much. We loved them both.

I always liked working with Nick and visiting when they were in CA and NV. Nick was always a happy guy and sure made me feel welcome. He will be always in my fond memories. All the Best Nick... you are certainly one of God's Best reflections.

Nick was a true gentleman. Though we only knew him for 3 years here in Henderson it was as if we had known him much longer. The bond that grew between Jim and him was truly like they were long lost brothers. Their love for golf brought us together but the friendship that we shared grew far beyond the golf course. We packed a lot of fun, laughter, and good times into every time that we were together. He always was kind to people wherever we went, and he adored and loved his Renae. He left us all way too soon, we had plans for more fun and laughs with him in the future. The Bible says "We know not the day nor the hour" your day came way too soon. Till we meet again, hope you have made that hole in one.
