

Patricia Ann Carnevale

March 17, 1944 - September 4, 2012

Patricia A. Carnevale, age 68, of Lehigh Acres, Florida passed away at her home on September 4, 2012. Ms. Carnevale was born in Dover, New Jersey but spent her school years in Pinellas Park, Florida. After graduating from high school, she returned to New Jersey and worked for the Department of the Army in the Picatinny Arsenal for thirty years before retiring to Lehigh Acres. In recent years, she has been active with the Democratic Party and was President of the Lee County Democratic Women's Club. She is survived by her niece Sharon (John) Baldwin and great-niece Katie (Warren) Payne, both of Chicago. At her request, no services are planned but donations in Patricia's memory for the less fortunate will gratefully be accepted by the Harry Chapin Food Bank, 3760 Fowler Street, Fort Myers, Florida 33901, (239) 334-7007; www.harrychapinfoodbank.org Funeral arrangements have been entrusted to Anderson-Patterson Cremation and Funeral Services, 2701 Lee Boulevard, Lehigh Acres, Florida 33971, (239) 368-7080. Those who wish to offer condolences should visit Patricia's memorial webpage at www.andersonpatterson.com and sign the guestbook.

“ Pat was the first person I met at Jim Roach's campaign office. She and Sharon trained me. Pat was the one who encouraged me to apply to be a delegate. I loved to hear her stories and thought we would have more time. My condolences to her friends and family. She is gone too soon. Sincerely, C.A. Hughes

“ Fred and I met Pat in 1999 when we moved into her neighborhood of Parkwood in Lehigh Acres. She hosted a couple of our Parkwood Homeowner's Association luncheons in her home with food and neighbors in abundance. She was a great host and always had Parkwood's and Lehigh's best interest at heart. She gave much to all who were lucky enough to know her... Sending our deepest sympathy - Mary nd Fred.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. After my husband passed away in 2007, I decided to volunteer at the DEC and Pat was the first person I met. I worked with her ever week thru the 2008 election. She was a very kind and smart woman. I will miss her so. I also wondered how is Suzie? I assume she was with her when she passed. I hope she is ok. How sad for her. She was everything to Pat. My prayers are with your family.
