

Patricia Margaret Townsend

June 5, 1935 - March 30, 2018

Patricia passed away peacefully after a sad and consuming illness. She is now with her son among angels. Pat was not only my wife for 62 years, but she was my constant companion, confidant, lover, and friend. I will sadly miss her. She always had a good and kind word for everyone. We will all sadly miss her. Go with the angels, as you are one.

“ *Dear Jim,
We are so very sad to lose our friend Patricia. There is no doubt that she is in a better place with David. She brought a sense of British royalty to our lives with her humor and wit. She introduced us to bangers and mash, bubbles and squeaks and to the most delicious desserts. We always enjoyed our good times at the Seminole and Allegheny Casinos. Our fridge pictures will be a daily reminder of those pleasant times with Patricia. So talented her beautiful sweaters will keep us cozy and warm.
We can not imagine how difficult this must be for you now but please know that we care about you. Wish we could have stayed longer but hope to be back on the 19th.
Love, Joe & Nancy*

“ Mom may you rest in peace after a long struggle with cancer. David and I loved you dearly, you raised us to love and respect others, and to enjoy our lives. Many moments of our family life pop to mind, the travelling we did, the holidays shared and then eventually time shared with grandchildren. I pray you are with David now and visiting our African homeland, where we all loved to be so much. Love you forever, Bev
