following an extended illness.

Patty was born in Hamilton, Ohio on Friday, May 2, 1930 to Robert Edward and Alfa Lee

(Wilson) Price. Her family had a farm near Somerville, Ohio where she earned many first place

4-H ribbons at the Preble County Fair for her talents with cooking, sewing and devoted care of animals. She graduated from West Elkton High School in 1948 awarded as the Class

Valedictorian. Patty worked at First American Trust and Savings Bank of Middletown, Ohio. In 1951, Patty married a classmate, Paul Fahrenholz at the Friends Church in West Elkton, Ohio.

Pat was employed by State Savings Bank in Upper Arlington, Ohio before she started her own mail order company, Patty Ann Creations, manufacturing needlepoint designs, cross-stitch sampler kits and silhouette prints for over thirty years. She also found time to serve her community with other women in the central Ohio area on Project Hope which provided support to those in need across the world. In 1986, Pat married Ray Wiese from Iowa at the Dayton Lutheran Church. They retired together living in Naples, Florida since 2006.

Patricia was preceded in death by her parents, Robert and Alfa Price and her three infant brothers; James Donald, Paul Howard and Robert F. Jr. Price of Hamilton, Ohio and her husband, Ray Wiese.
