“ Paul, words cannot say how sad this makes me. When I spoke to you before Thanksgiving you sounded like your normal sarcastic, yet intelligent self. I am truly blessed to have had the opportunity to serve our country next to you. You always made the field exercises more enjoyable. Always made a bad situation seem not so bad with your positive outlook. This is why I find this so hard to believe..I wish there would have been words of encouragement I could have given you to make you feel better because you always knew the right things to say to others. Ill miss you my brother, but now your an angel watching over all who continue to serve this country. RIP Paul Rich. DUSTOFF!!

“ Rich always did it the way he wanted to do it....regardless. Even in the military that attitude was an inspiration to others.

Derek Alldaffer - December 10, 2010 at 12:00 AM

“ A soldier's Last Judgement

The soldier stood and faced his God, which must always come to pass. He hoped his shoes were shining just as brightly as his brass.

"Step forward now, you soldier, How shall I deal with you? Have you always turned the other cheek? To My Church have you been true?"

The soldier squared his shoulders and said, "No, Lord, I guess I ain't Because those of us who carry guns Can't always be a saint."

"I've had to work most Sundays And at times my talk was rough, And sometimes I've been violent, Because the streets are awfully tough."

"But, I never took a penny That wasn't mine to keep... Though I worked a lot of overtime When the bills just got too steep."

"And I never passed a cry for help, Though at times, I shook with fear, And sometimes, God forgive me, I've wept unmanly tears."

"I know I don't deserve a place Among most people here, as They never wanted me around Except to calm their fears."

"If you've a place for me here, Lord, It needn't be so grand, I never expected or had too much, So if you don't, I'll understand."

There was a silence all around the throne Where the saints had often trod As the soldier waited quietly, For the judgment of his God,

"Step forward now you soldier, You've borne your burdens well, Walk peacefully on Heaven's streets, You've done your time in Hell."

“ Brother, Afghanistan was better because of you. Iraq was tolerable only because your wit and wisdom made it so. I miss you and will never forget you. I only wish I could have been home in the states, maybe a phone call or a stupid or funny email could have made things different. I love you Paul. Godspeed, and keep an eye on us here on earth, We can use a watchful eye here in Afghanistan and Iraq.

RIP SGT Paul Rich, Fellow Soldier, NCO, Friend, and Mustang lover!

“ Paul I miss you Brother. I first met you in AIT at Fort Eustis, VA. We quickly became friends and lucky for me we were assigned the same unit in Germany. I cannot express the feelings I have for you. You impacted me, and my family's life. We loved you Paul and will live out the rest of our days missing you. I spoke with you only a week or so before you left. I feel guilty that I could have not prevented this action. I wish and pray I could have! Paul, I know you are in no more pain. I know you are perfect now. I know Me, Sarah, our children; Bryn, Sylvie, and Kathleen will always miss you. The world will be a colder place without your light. To your family, I am truly sorry for your loss, for you have known him longer than my nine years of friendship...God Bless you and my God welcome Paul through his gates. I know heaven will now be a much better and beautiful place with Paul there. I MISS YOU BRO!!!!!! Love and be in peace, 1LT Mike Byrn.

“ *Those we love remain with us
For love itself lives on,
And cherished memories never fade Because a loved one's gone.
Those we love can never be More than a thought apart, Far as long as there is memory, They'll live on in the heart.*

Wish there was more we could do. To help ease the pain and sorrow, We know you are going through.

And though our words cannot begin to ease the loss you bear, We only hope it helps, somehow, to know how much we care.

You have our deepest sympathy.
