“ Chris and Stephanie,

I am so sorry to hear about your dad. I will always remember his joy at making Christmas special for my kids by posing as Santa late at night on Christmas Eve and letting them peek downstairs and catch a glimpse of Santa placing gifts under the tree. He was a good man and always willing to lend a helping hand if anyone ever needed anything. He was a Good Samaritan that didn't hesitate to stop and help a stranger with a flat tire or whatever was needed. I know he will be missed. I hope the good memories you had with him will stay in your hearts forever and help comfort you until you see him again.

❤️ Love, Ayla
