“ Would like to thank the funeral parlor and everybody that came to support their love for Peter we all deeply appreciate it and to my sister Lisa and Steve thank you so much for the flowers they're absolutely beautiful and at Mommy's house so I can make some mementos out of them. And to Aunt Ursula for making it a beautiful ceremony.

“ Dear Laurie and family,
Rich and I are so sorry for the passing of Pete. We will always remember Pete when he and Rich coached the kids T-Ball. What a great heart and sense of humor he had. He will be missed. May he rest now in peace with our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. May the peace of our Lord bring you all comfort and rest now and in the days to come.
All our love, Deb and Rich.

Oh Laurie, I am so sorry. You know how close he and I were, just thought of him the other day. I left Lowes in January and lost touch with a few people, I feel awful and pray 🙏 for you guys. Please send my best to everyone and let Peter know I love him and will miss him dearly.

So sorry . Pete and I started at Lowes. He was always willing to help and just a all around awesome person. Even after his motorcycle accident. He would stop in and say hi and see how everyone was doing. You and your family are in my prayers.
