

Philip Anthony Gonzalez

August 25, 1964 - August 29, 2020

Philip Anthony Gonzalez passed away on August 29, 2020, four days after his 56th birthday. He peacefully passed away in his home. Gonzalez was born in New York City. Since leaving the city, he briefly resided in Colorado, but finally settled down in Southwest Florida. In 2008, Phil graduated from Florida Gulf Coast University with a degree in Legal Studies. He used his superior writing abilities to develop a church outreach through the Kairos program and gave sermons at the American House Senior Living Communities. Phil fought bravely for many years against complications from his diabetes. Through it all, he managed to persevere with dignity and grace. He is survived by his wife Iliana, and his three children Leilani, Chris, and Daniel. Philip Gonzalez was a dedicated father, son, servant of the Lord. No matter how difficult the days were, Phil always tried to make everyone laugh and feel joy. He was a fierce listener, confidant, and friend, and will be greatly missed.

Tribute Wall

“ Philip Anthony Gonzalez

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Philip Anthony Gonzalez

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ I worked with Phil for 5 years at BSU. The last time I ran into him was at the Colt Ford concert at the park in Bonita, we had a great time listening to music. He always made me laugh, I truly enjoyed his sarcasm and wit. I'm very sorry to here of his passing....way too young. Prayers for his wife and children....

Jacqui - September 02, 2020 at 09:36 AM

“ Phil, You were happy, You were free, You were loving, You were loved.
Enjoyed working 12 years with you. Barbara E Besett

Barbara Besett - September 01, 2020 at 08:35 PM

“ Beautiful in Blue was purchased for the family of Philip Anthony Gonzalez.

September 01, 2020 at 01:54 PM