

Philip S Hagan

January 8, 1927 - July 23, 2014

Philip Stephen Hagan, beloved husband, father and grandpa (Papa) passed peacefully on July 23, 2014 at age 87. Known for his charisma, unconditional love and passion for the Pittsburgh Steelers. Phil's larger than life persona and cerebral wherewithal paved the way for the success of his family and 11 grandchildren. Phil was in the Automobile business for 50+ years in Ohio, Pennsylvania and Florida. He is survived by his wife of 54 years, Mary Kay, four children, Michelle Pendleton of Sarasota, FL., Julie (Jeff) Maren of Lynchburg, VA., Kevin (Emelinda) Hagan of Venice, FL., and Philip (Gail) Hagan of Dallas, TX. A memorial Mass will be held at the Church of the Incarnation, Sarasota, FL., at 9:30 am August 13th, 2014. Family will greet friends prior to Mass. Interment in the memorial garden is immediately following Mass. Memorial donations in his name can be made to Incarnation Catholic School Angel Fund in lieu of flowers.

Tribute Wall

“ Philip S Hagan

October 09, 2023 at 02:01 AM

“ Philip S Hagan

January 28, 2023 at 12:09 PM

“ Philip S Hagan

August 27, 2015 at 01:54 PM