“ How well we know the importance of family .. I received many emails over the years and of course kayla was the image I would see .. she is the Apple of his eye and such a beauty; we are so lucky to have Julie and kayla to keep Phil's memory bright! My dad was Phil's Godson and very proud of all his accomplishments over the years "such a hard worker" he would say and always willing to do more. I find personal comfort knowing they will see each other again and Phil will be with loving family always.

love you miss you
