“ There wasn't a holiday that went by that we weren't at Uncle Phil and Auntie Margie's house when I was young. As an adult he welcomed me, my husband, 3 sons (1 just born 3 months before) and my dog and 3 cats to stay and shelter from a hurricane. I'll never forget that! He was the kindest man and the best great uncle a girl could have! He will be missed!

“ Growing up visiting the Price family brings wonderful memories in Riverside. Mr. Price was such a sweet man and will be missed. He is with the angels now who need him and want him now.

“ My Uncle Phil was a sweet and kind man! He came to Arizona to see us once and I am sure he remembered the trip through the Salt River Canyon. The road was narrow and winding through the canyon with sheer drop offs. You could see vehicles that had gone off the edge. Phil had a florid complexion but he was as white as a sheet when he arrived. I will miss our phone conversations and his bear hugs! He always made me feel special. I love him and miss him. RIP Uncle Phil!

On several occasions, Phil would take a vacation day on Patriot's Day and travel to Boston to cheer me on in the Boston Marathon. What a great friend!,
