Ramiro Class Crespo was Born in Utuado, PR on April 29, 1944, to the late Maria Crespo and Julio Class. They had four children Jose Crespo, Carmen Morales, Juanita Gonzalez and Ramiro Crespo. Jose Crespo his older brother introduced Anabel Figueroa to Ramiro and soon they became a blended family and they married. When their father passed away his brother took Ramiro and moved to Vineland, NJ to provide financially for the rest of the family in Puerto Rico. When they moved to Vineland, NJ Ramiro helped raise David Alicea and Hector R Sierra who came to the marriage, and they had 2 of their own children Gladys (Class) Williams and Joseph Class. We lived in NJ till 1974 and then moved to Lancaster, PA. While in the United States he learned English and worked his way up on different jobs leaving the fields and learning how to operate forklifts. Most of all our family also followed and settled there. After raising the family, they decided to become snowbirds and then finally moved to Fort Myers, FL till his beloved wife passed in 2018. They enjoyed living in Fort Myers, the rest of their lives. Ramiro is survived by Carmen Morales his only sister. Deceased are Jose Crespo, Juanita Gonzalez's brother and sister. He is also survived by his children Maria Magdalena Class from his first marriage, Gladys (Class) Williams and Joseph Class his children and David Alicea and Hector R Sierra his stepchildren.
