Tribute Wall

“ Ramon was one of the best friends you could ask for. Loyal, funny, and caring guy. Fast friends in our math class in high school, our paths crossed many times over the years. Hell, once he ran into me outside of my work and fixed my flat tire in the parking lot. He was just that kind of guy, always willing to help a friend. It meant so much to me that he always remembered me and was always such a positive person. He was a deep thinker and loyal friend. Heavier than heaven. It hurts I won't see you in this life again, but I'll see you in the next one. □
