

Ramona Navarro Ventura

September 26, 1962 - February 17, 2020

Ramona Navarro Ventura

Born: September 26, 1962

Passed: February 17, 2020

Married to Roberto Ventura in Meridian, MS on 12-10-1987

Ramona Navarro Ventura, Age 57, of Lehigh Acres, Florida. Left to answer the Lord's call on February 17, 2020 in her mother's home. Her second home was with her husband's family in Santo Domingo, Dominican Republic.

Ramona Ventura was a jack of all trades who never shied away from a DIY project. The phrase, "I cannot do that," was not in her vocabulary. The love she had for her family was always clear, and the love she had for her children was beyond comprehension. She was a woman that always prayed for everyone that came into her life and would always do what she can to help those in need. Ramona was also a Navy wife for 20 years and, as anyone who serves can tell you, it was difficult most times; but she made it seem effortless, becoming the Ombudsman for military families in Washington, DC all while caring for her four children Nelson, Diana, Amanda, and Juan Cesar during six-month-long deployments.

Ramona was a lover of life and fought for it ferociously. Even after her health began to decline, she would continue to travel to the Dominican Republic to visit with family and friends, travel to various states to visit grandsons and granddaughters, and insist on play dates and sleep overs with all the children in the family, regardless of how rambunctious they became. She was always trying to create awesome memories with the family and lived to create memorable moments. To Ramona, her family was the secret to happiness, and she had an unquenchable thirst for life.

Ramona is survived by her mother, Iris Navarro; her husband, Roberto Ventura; their four children, Nelson Ventura, Diana Irizarry, Amanda Ventura, Juan Ventura and their five grandchildren.

“ Sending on our sympathy to Iris, Julio and all your family. We cannot express our heartfelt condolences to our beautiful family in Florida. It is our wish that God send her guardian angel to greet her and lead her into paradise to once again be with family that have gone before her to paradise. God bless all our family during this very difficult time of dealing with the passing of our sweet cousin, Ramona.

“ Sending our most heartfelt and deepest condolences to the family. Ramonita was our friend, indeed our sister, since we were kids growing up and learning together as part of one unified community. Every good memory of Ramona, her warm personality and illuminating smile will always be with us. Rest in peace Ramonita.
