I'm Free

Don't grieve for me, from pain I'm free

I'm following the path God has laid, you see I took his had when I heard his call,

I turned around and left it all.

I could not stay another day

To laugh, to love, to work or play. Tasks left undone must stay that way I found peace on a sunny day.

If my parting has left a void

Then fill it with remembered joys.

A family shared, a laugh, a kiss

Oh yes, these things I too will miss.

Be not burdened with times of sorrow

I wish you the sunshine of tomorrow.

My life has been full and I have savored much, Good family, good times, a loved one's touch.

Perhaps my time seems all too brief

Don't lengthen it now with undue grief. Lift up your hearts and peace to thee

God wanted me now; from pain, I'm free.

“ As a volunteer at SMDP for several years, Richard was a friend-- always smiling, kidding us, and so caring. No matter what I needed, he could always find it, always, even when no one else could. I will never forget his love for "coconut donuts" . Prayers for your family and friends, Richard. Know that you made a wonderful difference in our lives and the lives of those you helped serve. You deserve to rest in peace in the arms of our Lord.

“ Our sympathies to Richard's loved ones. We volunteered at St. Martin de Porres for awhile and were always met with a smile from Richard. He was a tireless worker helping fight hunger and will be missed.

“ I spent a lot of days working with Richard at SMDP Outreach. His efforts made sure we were able to feed many of the folks we try and support. He did all of this with a smiling face and a very dry sense of humor. I miss him and his willingness to do anything to help out. Besides I hate to open up all the bags that we use for pantry distribution. RIP Richard.

“ I am a volunteer at SMDP and worked with Richard quite a few times picking up food from Harry Chapin. He was a hard worker, reliable, and very dedicated; also very thoughtful and enjoyable to be around. So sorry he is gone... he is certainly missed.

“ To the Duncan family,

Please accept my deepest sympathies on the loss of Mr. Richard. This is the name I called him at Saint Martin dePorres. He was a tremendous help to me while I volunteered with Miss Dorothy on Fridays. He would joke with me, "I owe you one", when he was helping her on the days I wasn't there. I told him that "I owe you one" for being there when I couldn't be there. I would look at him and smile because I knew he would say something to keep me laughing. His loss here on earth is definitely God's gain. I believe the reason God took Mr. Richard from us was He needed help with mopping the floors in heaven and needed to hear his jokes. You're in my prayers during this most difficult time.
