

Richard David Montgomery

March 25, 1965 - June 28, 2022

Richard David Montgomery, 57, resident of Fort Myers, FL since 1988, formerly of Columbus, OH, passed away Tuesday June 28, 2022, in Cape Coral FL. He was born March 25, 1965. Rick was the best father, son, sibling, and friend to anyone who knew him. He spent his workdays in different mechanic shops over the years and spent his free time always doing something fun. Whether it was a Nascar race, fishing, shooting guns, bonfires, a game of golf, riding quads, or cooking out on the weekends with his kids. He loved to cook, and he was good at it! You know you're lucky if you ever got to taste his "chicken rickster!". No matter what was going on in his life Rick always had a positive attitude, even when he wasn't good, he was always good. He was full of pride in himself and even more so in his children. Rick was always the funniest guy in the room, he loved that he had the ability to make you laugh even in the worst of situations. He had a huge love for music of all kinds and if you were in anyway close to him, you'd always get a random YouTube link of whatever song he was stuck on that day, or one that made him think of you. He is so loved and will be missed by so many people.

Rick is survived by his loving mother Marsha Finley, and sister Lori Montgomery-Coffenberger. His three loving children, daughters Megan Montgomery and Madison Montgomery; son Clayton Montgomery and wife Katie-Marie Montgomery, and two grandchildren Layne and Easton Montgomery; niece Taylor Dunn. Mother of his children, Lydia Montgomery.

Best friend Patrick Patton, as well and the other many close friends that'd he would consider family.

“ Wow, Rick
Let's not sugarcoat, you could be stubborn, proud and sometimes uncompromising
But man could you make us laugh.
I hope you know how much you are missed
Rest In Peace brother

“ I would love to be able to go fishing just me and him, and to hear him say “get ‘em clay” as I set the hook one last time. Love ya dad

“ finch here, thank you for always being the funniest person I knew. Thank you for always being there to do the fun stuff with, the scary stuff, the good stuff, the bad stuff, and everything in between. You were always my biggest fan, and if he knew you he was probably yours too. You are sooo so loved and so missed already. I love you Dad.

“ When Rick became a part of our family it was instant karma - his quick wit and charm had us at the first hello. Over the years we grew to know his love for life, his children and family. Even at his sickest he would ask about family first and always tell us he had “a long row to hoe” and was hanging in there. There are recent days we can’t believe we won’t hear those bad jokes and your laugh. We’ll see you again Rick - but until then keep an eye on us won’t you?

Rick always called Megan "FINCH" because she's the most petite of his kids. Tiny, but MIGHTY, that's for sure!! XO NANA

“ I have known Rick forever. He was my first crush, my first kiss and my first love. He gave me the best gifts of my life, our 3 kids. And they are all funny just like him. We all miss him so much every day. It's hard to imagine a holiday or a birthday without him. Until we meet again we will keep you alive through all the funny memories we have. Love you Rick ❤️

“ My memories of my son, Rick - would fill a thousand pages. He was a pleasure since birth. As soon as he could talk, he would make us laugh! He was so funny & so kind, & so loving. When the kids came.....he was just that .....funny, kind & loving. His kids & grandkids were his LIFE. I don't know how we can "do everyday life" without him. RIP MY BEAUTIFUL SON!
