“ Hi Dad,

It has been 16 months since you passed. So much has happened since then. I want to tell you. We finally made the decision to come back to FL. It's not the same without you hear, that's for sure. Since you passed away we have dealt with a few other deaths of loved ones. Our very good friend, Tony P, passed away last Sat. He was a great friend to all of us. Your oldest grandson has had a very tough few months and is in recovery but standing strong and fighting it all the way. Kitty & Bobby, Mark & Brittany's Gmom and Uncle passed within a couple months of each other. We stand strong Dad, because that's how you taught us to be. Matt and I are doing a business together. It's not the kind of business you ever suggested, but none the less, you would be proud of us. We are here for one another all the time. Now all we need to do is get Jackie here and then you'd really be happy (; I have your pictures right above my desk and talk to you often. I hope you can hear me. I hope you can see how big Aidan is getting and is still your lil side kick. He wore his shirt the other day. He starts kindergarten in two months. I wish so bad you were here to see him. He is still such a loving little boy...the best snuggler in the world. I love you and miss you daddy with all my heart. Your little girl

“ Hi Dad,
I know its been a while since I wrote. I am listening to a queen song we used to sing to & I wanted to let you know I'm thinking you. I think about you everyday.
There are times I cry because I miss you. I haven't lived up to my promises but I know regardless of what I do you will always love me.
If you were here, you would be having your first great grandchild. Ashley is having a little baby boy in Nov.
I wish you were still here to be a part of that. But I know you are always here in spirit & in our hearts.
I love & miss you my daddy very much!
Your Little Wag,
Jackie
p.s. Every time I hear In the Middle of the Night by Billy Joel I remember you wanting to hear it & sing with me while you were sick. It will forever remind me of you.

“ Hi Dad,
For some reason I couldnt get into our family book to leave a message so I thought I would send a message through here. I just wanted to see you and say hello. I miss you so much everyday and it never seems to get better. they say time heals all wounds but I feel as though time makes me miss you even more and my heart hurts even more. I love you Dad and I still feel my hand in yours like it was yesterday. I love you Dad and miss you so much “ Hi dad...

Today is your birthday, March 22nd. You would have been 67. Me, Sandy & Matt texted Happy Birthday to each other for you today. I wanted to let you know I miss you & I love you & there isn't a day that goes by that I don't think about you.
Marina called me today & she is going to visit you tonight to say Happy Birthday.
I love you popa very much!

“ Dad... I wanted you to know there isn't a day that goes by that I have multiple images of you in my heart & soul. I wish I had more time with you before you passed. I keep your pictures on my dining room table. I took one of your shirts & scotch tape from your house & I hold them & think of you. I smell the shirt because it has your scent. I miss you deeply & still cant believe your gone. I promise I will do whatever it takes to make your proud.
I love you & miss you so much Dad!!
Love always,
Little Wag

“ We had a real friend in Bob, who graced our Church again and again with his highest standards of craftsmanship. He did his work in the sense as one would give a gift, it was always of the most perfect order. I wanted your family to know just how much he meant to our Church His love goes on and continues in everyone who knew him. Love is in the consciousness of everyone who remembers Bob.

“ I will always remember Bob has a very talented carpenter. Bob helped to remodel my home in Redford. I so enjoyed planting flowers in the flower boxes he made. When ever I needed something done, he would be there. During my visit with Bob in his home in Sarasota, I was inspired by his garden and interior decorating. Bob selected the color purple, which means both nobility and spirituality. Purple has a special , almost sacred place in nature. Bob loved nature and was a very spiritual person. He expressed to others to let the Holy Spirit work through you. Thank you Bob for all the ways you have inspired me. Thank you God for Bob, a man who embraced life.

“ Bob..... I will miss you. You lived passionately, loved deeply and desired to make an difference in other's lives. You were certainly your own person. A sports hero, yes. A political junkie, yes. Someone who loved being near the water, yes. This list could go on. But more importantly, you were a man who cared deeply, lived fully and seemingly always wanted a little more out of life. Although we had our differences (who doesn't) I will always remember my big brother for the giant size of your heart. Thanks for the memories and your everlasting love..... Brother John
