“ I am speechless, to say the least. Two memories will always remain with me of this GREAT man and mentor. He taught me typing at GHS. I also played soccer there and during one game, I was seriously injured - as he stood on the sidelines observing what happened, he used (rare at the time) his mobile phone to get an ambulance to me and as I was being transfered to the stretcher, he squeezed my hand and told me things would be ok. Following that incident, he always checked on my recovery and for these two experiences, I am forever grateful - I hope I can in whatever way ensure that his legacy lives on. As often as I wondered where he was now, I could never locate him and for that I feel really guilty that this is how I would hear about him - a little too late. May you rest with the Lord, Sir.

“ Mr Clark touched the lives of many of his students by reaching out with an open heart and hand. He heard not only our words, but more importantly he listened for our pain. I was lucky enough to be one of them and I still carry his kindness deep within my soul. Many blessings on on your journey, Sparky. You were loved by all, and appreciated more than I could tell you then.

Sincerely,

“ I am so sorry to hear about Robert's death. I am so sad that the valiant career of one of our soldiers gave Robert such heartache. The aftermath of the war experience is horrific. Bless all those that Robert loved, near and far, esp. his dad, mom and son. I am glad that I got to meet and share some times with Robert. My sister will never forget her Robert and the love that he gave to her. Robert is at peace. God bless Robert's family and all who loved him.
