“ Bob was an incredible gentleman. I knew him for years from his years at Goodwill of Western New York. ALL he did was done with professionalism and class. We became good friends, sharing an interest in model railroading.

It was such a terrible call to receive that a friend as special as Bob had passed so suddenly and too soon. We, are, however, all the better off from having Bob in our lives, even if for too short a time. After so many times where our schedules were in conflict we were looking forward to finally getting together in early August. Sadly, it is not to be.

To Debby and the rest of the Haenggi family I extend the sincerest condolences of our family to yours. Please know you are in our prayers and we care for you.

Bob, you will be so missed and I will always appreciate and cherish your graciousness, professionalism, humor, and compassion. You will ALWAYS be a treasure to me in my heart and spirit.

God Bless,

Tim Hodder

“ Bob, thanks for being my friend and sharing your lust for life with me, Doug and my boys! We will miss dinners out with you and Debbie, Joe and Martha! We will miss senior staff outings and laughs that went along with them. Most important of all, we will miss you my friend and the love and laughter that surrounded you every day that we got to share with you here in sunny, WARM, Florida! Thank you for being my friend!

“ A man with a smile always there to help anyone. I meet Bob at work, Valu Home Store I have been there now over 10 years and he has left a life long impression on me. Even when he left Valu and came in for paint etc. he always had the time to great you and bring a smile to your face. These good memories keep this special person alive in my mind. He had the lust for life and he lived it and showed it. He left Buffalo a better place for his presence and great smile and caring ways. Thank you for sharing him with so many.

“ I worked with Bob at Valu Homecenters on Kenmore Ave. about 9 or 10 yrs ago. Several other people as well as myself are deeply saddened at Bob's passing and your loss. He was a real people person who seemed to really love whatever it was that he was doing. He never had a bad word to say about anyone and the people here that knew him will certainly miss him as a co-worker. But more importantly he'll be missed not for what he did but for who he was - husband, father, brother, grandfather, and, of course, friend. Thank you for letting us share our thoughts with you. We'll keep him in our thoughts and prayers.

“ Debbie - our deepest sympathy to you and family.

Uncle Bob had the greatest laugh!
He will be missed by many. My parents had such a good visit with you both last fall.

“ What moves through us is a silence, a quiet sadness, a longing for one more day, one more word, one more touch, we may not understand why you left this earth so soon, or why you left before we were ready to say good-bye, but little by little, we begin to remember not just that you died, but that you lived. And that your life gave us memories too beautiful to forget.

?Peace, prayers and blessings.

“ I have only been with Goodwill and working for Bob for 6 months but I interviewed with him back in January 2010. He was so kind and gracious then and immediately put me at ease. That was the way he treated me since then and indeed everyone he came in contact with. I hope to carry on his vision for CDS and continue to make him proud.

“ I had the honour of meeting Bob at the end of March in North Carolina during a CARF survey. I enjoyed our few days together and at the end of the survey he invited me and my family to visit him in Florida. This was the impression he left - an exceedingly generous man, easy to get to know and like. To Bob's family you have my deepest sympathies and are in my prayers.

“ Dear family of Bob,
It is with sadness that I offer my condolences to you. I met Bob in early February during a CARF survey at Goodwill. He was a great guy to work with. I feel like I have lost a friend. May you come to experience the Peace that is deeper than is expressible.

“ The first time I met Bob was during my job interview. He was new to our Goodwill and instead of "interviewing" me, we just sat and shot the breeze for half an hour.
That's how I'll always remember Bob: friendly, laid-back, and kind-hearted. He will truly be missed.

“ I am so sorry for your loss. I went through CARF surveyor training with Bob. He surely made the whole experience lighthearted and fun with his sense of humor, empathy and intelligence. My sincere sympathies are with you and your family. God bless you.

“Debbie, Sarah, Kristen and John my deepest sympathy goes out to all of you. It's been such a shock. I'm torn between tears for you and smiles over all the beautiful (often hilarious) memories of Bob (I just can't get the Rinki-dinki-doo song out of my head).

He "is" an amazing man and I mean "is" because he will always be with us, a part of our lives, to think of, to love, and rejoice in.

If there is anything you need or just want to talk endlessly, I am here. please don't hesitate to call

love, Robrta

“ There's simply no words to express the sadness I'm feeling not only for Bob but for the family he's left behind. So many laughs on dad's boat, and at the card table with family, by the fire. We've shared so many great vacations- I will cherish each and every one. love you ,Bob.
