“ We celebrate your life today with all your friends at BCB. I was looking through your photo album and it brought back the memories of your young life. Your dad and I were so happy to have you. A mother's love is always enduring and my love for you will always endure. I know that your current resting will only be temporary and that I will see you again. So sleep my child until we meet again.
Love, Mom.

“ Robert was the kindest person we knew at BCB..always had a friendly word or smile for anyone. He will be greatly missed and BCB will not be the same without him . I remember when I was pregnant and I worked next door to the bowling alley and came in to get lunch he would see me and stop and chat no matter what he was doing ...God speed Robert ..heaven truly has an angel in their midst

“ You know, bro, I will never feel like you left us. Even though you departed the earth, I feel your spirit surround me and can hear you words echo though the winds whispers and know you have my back as you are the shadows cast upon the ground. There are many things that we left unsaid in life but the one thing we never left unsaid was how much we loved each other. Don't worry about Mommy (I got her back for you) and Tiffany is blessed with a strong family to support her and our family as well. You know, once you become a part of our dysfunctional family, you're a part of it forever. Tell Grandma, Daddy, Cousin Lisa, and Auntie Lynne I said, "Hi" and that I love them so. I comforts me knowing that you are in their good company.

A special thanks for all of those who have supported us in the last month. Please know that your support is appreciated even though we may not have expressed it directly. From our family to yours... take care of one another.

Love,
Your lil' sis

“ Tiffany, loss of a loved one cuts like a knife. The wound heals, but the scares are forever, but so are all the loving memories he left on your heart.

“ Our sorrow and sympathy out to our Tiffany, and family of Robert. Its not fair you were taken so soon. I pray for God to hold you tightly in his arms, and to heal the sorrow and pain for all left behind. The grief so breathtaking, the memories abundant. In you passing if all we may learn is to look out for and care for each other, never turn your back...for it was in your living that we learned that life offers no guarentees, no promises, and to capture every moment. Your kind innocense, and quiet persona, blessed us all.. Auntie cannot ever forget the happiness that you found in each other..such a short amount time together..and the happiest of memories ever so grand..how much you will be missed. I realize you have passed so suddenly, but in my heart you will never be far away,,Love Auntie Gail..

“ God Bless you Robert and Tiffany (and family) and keep you closely at hand. We often ask why such things happen in our lives. The joys of this beautiful young couple were felt throughout our family and taken much too soon. It will certainly be quite awhile before we all heal, but we promise you will never be forgotten. For it is in our life we find joy and meaning, no matter the length of time that you have been together.it is the quality spent and treasured together that means so much. In your passing may these memories be never forgotten, and the support you have here with your dear friends always remember those left behind...Dear Robert you heald many titles. Husband, son, brother,grandson, nephew,uncle(dad to your dog) May God Bless you and keep you in his presence for all infinity...All my love, Nana
