

Robert Reynolds

September 17, 1920 - April 11, 2012

Robert "Bob" Reynolds died April 11, 2012 at the age of 91, while recuperating from hip surgery. He is survived by his daughter, Sandra Stewart of Sarasota, three grandchildren JT, Tracy, and Ashley Stewart also of Sarasota, and fourteen nieces and nephews who reside up north.

Bob was born September 17, 1920 in Janesville, Wisconsin. He was a naval pilot in WWII and made his living writing advertising for heavy equipment.

As a pastime he enjoyed writing poetry and tales about his childhood. He was an avid reader, greatly interested in philosophy, religion and science. He enjoyed classical music and studied and sang opera in his youth.

There will be no services. Bob donated his body to the University of Florida College of Medicine in the interest of Science.

Funeral arrangements under the direction of Gendron Funeral & Cremation Services Inc., 135 N. Lime Ave, Sarasota, Florida 34237 941-365-1767.
