“ Josh, I am so sorry to hear Robyn's passing she was a beautiful human being and I'm sure her and her mom are together laughing and having fun. I wish you happiness and comfort through all the memories you have of her she always wanted to make sure that you were OK

“ That should be: Love Jimi, not Joni (autocorrect stinks!)

“ I only just found out that you're gone. I don't understand why. You were the best best friend I ever could have asked for and I have SO many good memories. They still make me laugh (What's in the bag?). I never laughed with anyone the way I did with you. You were so Kindhearted and loving. I missed you when you were still here and now I'll miss you forever. I love you Margaret! Love, Joni ❤️

“ Dear Sister,

I still have not accepted that you are gone. Every time I think about it, I push it out of my mind because it is too much for me to bear. I hear your voice and laugh when I awaken from a dream.

You were so caring, trusting, and supportive. I love and miss you so much. You shaped so much of who I am. From the music I like, to interests, to things I probably don't even realize. When I was a kid and you weren't home, I would go in your room and listen to your music tapes. Bands like Black Sabbath, DIO, Metal Church, S.O.D. Too many to remember.

It used to irritate me when you would refer to me as your little brother since I am an adult and almost 3 times your size. But I wish my cool big sister was still here to call me her little brother now.

You don't have to worry anymore. You are at peace and free from the pain of this life. I don't believe in "heaven", but I hope I am wrong and you and Mom are there together at peace.

I love you Sister and miss you so damn much. I am sorry for everything. Your passing has changed me and I will never be the same again.
